The Unitarian Church

Concord, New Hampshire

October

1923

This Church, in common with others of the Unitarian fellowship, accepts "the religion of Jesus, holding in accordance with His teaching that practical religion is summed up in love to God and love to man." All are invited into its fellowship who are in sympathy with its religious spirit, its consecration to freedom and its loyalty to truth.

Calendar for October

THE WHITE MAN

Wherever the white man's feet have trod,
(Oh, far does the white man stray)
A bold road rifles the virginal sod,
And the forest wakes out of its dream of God,
To yield him the right of way,
For this is the law: by the power of thought
For worse, or for better, are miracles wrought.

Wherever the white man's pathway leads,
(Far, far, has that pathway gone)
The earth is littered with broken creeds,
And always the dark man's tent recedes,
And the white man pushes on.
For this is the law: be it good or ill
All things must yield to the stronger will.

Wherever the white man's light is shed,
(Oh, far has that light been thrown)
The nature has suffered, and beauty fled,
The goal of the race has been thrust ahead,
And the might of the race has grown.
For this is the law: be it cruel or kind,
The universe sways to the power of mind.

During the interval between the close of the present pastorate and the settlement of a new minister it is hoped and expected that every member of the parish will be loyal and generous in his support of the church services. Let each remember that it is his church and whoever is called will be his minister. The committee can act intelligently and democratically only as it has the full benefit of parish opinion. Each and every one should exercise the rights and privileges of his spiritual franchise. The time to express a preference is before the choice has been made. Once the decision has been reached, let all differences be buried in a democracy of common endeavor, a noble contention of who best can work and best agree.
