organized Turkish Political Party. The later delivered to the Armenian Party copies of the secret decisions ^{prepared} ~~made~~ by Young Turkish Party in ~~its~~ ^{the} Congresses ^{of} ~~at~~ Salonika, concerning especially the massacre of Christians.

On September 7, 1913, the Armenian Socialist Democratic Party held a Congress in Constanza, Roumania; the party declared itself illegal, and made a decision to assassinate the leaders of Young Turkish Party before they could carry out the decisions made in their Congresses at Salonica on 1910 and 1911.

Turkish Osmanli News papers published many documents and real facts of massacre

We cannot trusts empty words and negation of historical facts, put the facts on the table,

The publication of Imperial Edicts, for the first time in the period of 1914-1987, will be an astonishment for the entire world. It will seem like the egg of Columbus, it could have been published
